

An exciting INTERNSHIP opportunity in Japan!

September 2018-July 2019

Toyo Gakuen University

As an intern you will assist various faculties in delivering English and culturally focused classes as a teaching assistant. You will also participate in and/or organize events to promote the internationalization initiatives of our campus. We are looking for someone who is flexible, adaptable, friendly, outgoing, and open to working in a team. Japanese ability is not required but welcomed.

Benefits include (but not limited to): Paid position, accommodation provided, reimbursed transportation costs, mentoring, a chance to work in and around our campus in central Tokyo.

Application Documents:

Please send a resume (in English) and a cover letter explaining:

- why you would like to take part in this internship;
- why you are a suitable candidate for this position.

Questions & applications should be directed to:

Deputy Director: Dr. Sarah Louisa Birchley
sarah.birchley@tyg.jp

Deadline: March 31st 2018

