

NORTH-EAST ASIA, KOREA AND WHY IT MATTERS TO YOU

Hosted by- CHSS Diversity and Inclusion Committee

Contact: Dr. Lei Duan lx042@shsu.edu

Join us for a conversation with General In-Bum Chun, former commander of the South Korea (ROK) Special Warfare Command, on “North-east Asia, Korea, and Why It Matters to You”. This is a rare opportunity to hear from a senior ROK military officer about the developments on the Korean peninsula and the ROK-U.S. alliance.

WHEN: Oct 20th, 6:00 pm- 7:30 pm.

WHERE: Zoom

Meeting ID: 886 3137 7828

About the Speaker: In-Bum Chun is a retired Lieutenant General in the South Korean Army and an experienced veteran in U.S.-Korean military relations. During his time in service, LTG Chun has served as the Director of U.S. Affairs at the Korean Ministry of National Defense and was the Commander of the ROK Special Warfare Command. LTG Chun retired from active duty in 2016 and has continued his work as an expert in the field through fellowships at the Brookings Institute and the US-Korea Institute of the School of Advanced International Studies.

Sam Houston State University

Diversity & Inclusion
COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES & SOCIAL SCIENCES
SAM HOUSTON STATE UNIVERSITY